Praise and Thanksgiving and Recent Events

- Praise God that after more than a year of praying and waiting upon the Lord, He has brought Pastor Wing Yip, formerly the Cantonese and Student pastor of RCCC, to become the half time Assistant Director / Operations Manager for CLRC effective 3/1/14. He is now responsible for CLRC's current operations and programs and will be assisting the Executive Director for future development and expansion of CLRC's ministry.
- Praise God that CLRC hosted the NCSU student fellowship retreat in February, 2014, at the Lake Gaston facility in Bracey, VA. The UNC fellowship also held their Spring break retreat (UNC 学人之家 2014 春假退修营) at CLRC in March, 2014. Praise God that CLRC facility has been safe without any damages through the rough winter this year but the weather was mild and sunny during the retreats.
- The preparation for the upcoming April leadership seminar retreat (April 24-26) is in full swing. The two speakers are Pastors John Hsu and Jian Zhu on the topic of The Spiritual Life and Character of Christ's Servants 基督僕人领袖的靈命與品性. The seminar brochure has been available as well as the updated online registration process. This online process encourages potential attendees from each church to be registered collectively by the church representative.
- Albert attended the annual Ligonier's National Conference in Orlando, FL, March 13-15. This year the theme was Overcoming the World – Being a Christian in a Post-Christian Culture, with noted speakers such as RC Sproul, Albert Mohler, Sinclair Ferguson. The conference has about 5000 attendees nationwide and many exhibitors with useful information. I have the complete conference CD set if anyone is interested to borrow.
- Albert's research project at Moody Graduate School, A Ministry Proposal to Strengthen the Leadership of Chinese Churches in North America, is now available via a link on CLRC website's About Us page. The research project was completed in 1999 as partial fulfillment of his MA degree in Ministry. This research work serves as the basis for the CLRC vision / mission and implementation.

Prayer Requests

- Pray for the new CLRC Assistant Director & Operations Manager, Pastor Wing Yip, as he embarked on a new spiritual journey and ministry.
- Pray for the two April 24-26 Seminar retreat speakers to be full of the Spirit and their messages on 基督僕人领袖的靈命與品性 to be a great blessing to all the attendees.
- Pray for the coordinator and all the co-workers for the seminar retreat. The next planning meeting will be held on April 5, Saturday morning at 10 a.m., at Albert's home in Wake Forest. This will be combined with the regular CLRC co-workers bimonthly sharing/praying meeting. Everyone with the burden and interest for the ministry is welcome to attend.
- Pray for all the attendees from various churches to be prepared with their hearts and minds to receive God's messages and have intimate fellowships with one another and the speakers during the seminar retreat.
